EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Michael R. Malek (Reg. No. 65,211) on April 26, 2011.

The application has been amended as follows:

20. (Currently Amended) A method, comprising:

receiving, by a switch coupled to a plurality of repeaters, a data packet destined to a mobile station, the data packet being characterized as having an address that corresponds to the mobile station;

performing, by the switch, an address translation on the address to identify a switch port from among a plurality of switch ports that corresponds to a repeater from among the plurality of repeaters that is wirelessly communicatively coupled to the mobile station;

determining, by the switch, whether immediately transmitting the packet from the repeater to the mobile station will cause an interference with other communications destined to the mobile station; and transmitting, by the switch, the packet through the switch port to the repeater when it is determined that immediately transmitting the packet will not cause interference.

35. (Currently Amended) An apparatus, comprising:

means for receiving a packet destined to a mobile station, the data packet being characterized as having an address that corresponds to the mobile station;

means for performing an address translation on the address to identify a switch port from among a plurality of switch ports that corresponds to a repeater from among [[the]] a plurality of repeaters that is wirelessly communicatively coupled to the mobile station, the plurality of repeaters being coupled to the switch; means for determining whether immediately transmitting the packet from the repeater to the mobile station will cause an interference with other communications destined to the mobile station; and means for transmitting the packet through the switch port to the repeater when it is determined that immediately transmitting the packet will not cause interference.

REASON FOR ALLOWANCE

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 2, 4-17, 19-21, 23-25, 27-31, and 33-35 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Grybos discloses the method of configuring a plurality of repeaters operating at a substantially identical communication frequency to coordinate transmissions of data packets with respect to first and second mobile stations, determining whether the transmissions will create interference between the first and second packets, transmitting the packets at different times when it is determined that an interference will occur. However Grybos does not disclose configuring, by a switch, a plurality of repeaters operating at a substantially identical communication frequency to coordinate transmissions of first and second data packets to first and second mobile stations, respectively, that are wirelessly communicatively coupled to a repeater from among the plurality of repeaters, the first data packet being characterized as having a first address that corresponds to the first mobile station and the second data packet being characterized as having a second address that corresponds to the second mobile station; performing, by the switch, an address translation on the first and second addresses to identify a switch port from among a plurality of switch ports that corresponds to the repeater; determining, by the switch, whether wirelessly transmitting the first and second data packets from the repeater to the first and second mobile stations, respectively, will create interference between the first and second data packets; and transmitting, by the switch, the first and second data packets through the switch port to the repeater at different times when it is determined that wirelessly transmitting the first and second data packets from the repeater will create interference.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
